

7th Annual Elk Hunt Wed., Oct. 19th– Wed., Oct. 26th 2011

The 2011 CrossHeirs Elk Hunt has been scheduled for October 19th-26th. You don't want to miss this exciting time of fellowship, study and great hunting in the mountains just outside of Canon City, CO.

Once again this year we will set up our 16 x 32 GPC Medium Army tent at an elevation of 8,000ft near Westcliffe, CO. Space is limited to 10 hunters so get your deposit in today!

Cost:

- $150 non-refundable deposit,
- $550 Bull Elk tag (although there may be some leftover Cow Elk tags and Mule Deer tags which may be purchased over the counter in CO for about $354 & 329 respectively)
- Transportation costs which include gas and a hotel room on the return trip which averages to roughly $3-400 depending upon gas prices and the number of hunters per vehicle.
- You provide your own breakfast and lunch and supply groceries to our camp chef Paul Uher who will prepare dinner.

Make checks payable to:

Directions:

We will caravan out of Little Rock, AR on the afternoon of Wed., Oct. 19th, drive all night until we arrive in Canon City where we will set up camp then sleep!

Friday we will go out in pairs and scout locations to hunt.

Saturday the season opens. We will hunt before dawn until dark and return for dinner and devotions each night...followed by some serious card games and fellowship!

We will break camp and begin the trip home on Tues., Oct. 25th and return on Wed., Oct. 26th.
